

Education

- Resident tuition for all veterans and the immediate families at Iowa Central Community College.
- Free book rentals if Veterans Affairs benefits do not cover that cost at Iowa Central Community College.
- Free admission to all Iowa Central Community College campus activities such as sporting events, musicals, plays, and fine art events for veterans and their families.
- One on one assistance with G.I. Bill paperwork with Veterans Affairs certifying official on Iowa Central Community College campus.
- Veterans recognized at Iowa Central Community College's graduation by wearing Red, White and Blue cord.
- Iowa Central Community College will work with veterans to make sure they have books/tools the first day of class even if their Veterans Affairs funds have not been sent to Iowa Central Community College.
- Iowa Central Community College Recreation Center discount even if not a current student.
- Welcome gift basket from Iowa Central Community College including but not limited to a punch card for 10 free meals in the cafeteria, Iowa Central apparel, draw string bag, lanyard and a thank-you note from Iowa Central for serving our country.
- Iowa Central Community College offers a Veteran's Day program.
- Iowa Central Community College has scholarships available to help with tuition for those who don't receive full payment from Veterans Affairs.
- One on one assistance with GI Bill paperwork with Veterans Affairs certifying official on Buena Vista University campus.
- Buena Vista University will work with veterans to make sure they have books the first day of class even if their Veterans Affairs funds have not been sent to Buena Vista University.
- Buena Vista University is a yellow ribbon school, a supplementary program and an extension of the benefits provided by the New GI bill.
- Welcome gift from Buena Vista University including a thank-you note from Buena Vista University for serving our country.